Adjournment Motion regarding the inhuman treatment of a patient in the Trichur Hospital—cont.

Deputy President.—There is an adjournment motion tabled by the Hon'ble Member for Cheruviruthi. It is in order.

Dr. A. R. Menon.—Sir, may I make an observation in this connection? I do not desire to move it because it is physically impossible to get the motion moved as it requires the support of 20 members. I shall therefore resort to other methods to bring the matter before the C. M. and S. O. I beg leave to withdraw the motion.

Deputy President.—I allow you to withdraw.

Hence the motion was withdrawn.
